

Please continue to regard New Jersey's Do Not Call legislation as a model for the U.S. It is great when I can be at home and not be interrupted by some telemarketer trying to sell me something. Make a federal government Do Not Call List and I will be happy to sign up.